MARY AND JOHN.

Mary had a little lamb, its fleece was white as snow; it strayed away one summer's day where lambs should never go. Then Mary sadly sat her down, and tears streamed from her eyes; she never found the lamb because she did not advertise.

And Mary had a brother John, who kept a village store; he sat and smoked his pipe all day and watched the open door. And as the people passed along, and did not stop to buy, John still sat and smoked his pipe and blinked his sleepy eye. And so the brokers seized his stock, but still he lingered near, and Mary came to drop with him a sympathetic tear. "How is it, sister, can you say, why other shopmen quickly sell all their goods and merchandise, and seem to thrive so well?" Remembering her own bad luck, the little maid replied: "Those other fellows fatten, John, because they advertise."

BLACK HAND

Thomas James Fears a Second Attempt on His Life

Cincinnati Times-Star.

"I want permission to carry a revolver."

That was the request made of Detective Chief Crawford Wednesday evening, by Thomas James, a Macedonian, but it was refused. He claimed that he was being pursued by the "Black Hand" and that threats had been made against his life. James identified himself to the Detective as the man who was shot some time ago at Maysville, Ky., by a man named Demetra Naoum, who is now in Jail at Maysville awaiting trial. James claims that since the shooting he has been threatened with all kinds of dire things if he prosecutes, so he asks permission to carry the revolver.

It developed from the story of James, who was accompanied by Attorney Orebough, that there have been threats by letter to other members of the Greek colony, in this city, by the "Black Hand."

James arrived in this city yesterday and accompanied by his brother and another Macedonian, visited the law office of Sallee & Slatery to consult with the County Attorney, who at the time was engaged in the Courthouse, but Commonwealth's Attorney Hennessey by chance happened to be present, and James in conversation with that gentleman assured him he would be here at the September term of Court and prosecute Demetra Naoum to the bitter end. He promised to have his witnesses here too; in that event replied the Commonwealth's Attorney, we will give Naoum ten years in the Penitentiary, the limit of the law.

Henry Milton Pyles of Mayslick is a recent graduate of Millersburg Military Institute.

The crescent glow of candle's light adorned the stately trees; the velvet grass a carpet spread the invited hosts to welcome, while sitting on her throne of beauty the elegant home was a diadem of brilliancy to extend the hospitalities of warm greeting and true delight. The Hoeflich reception, which followed the Commencement exercises of Miss Gordon's Training School, was a splendid climax to so erudite and finished a scene as that enacted at the Opera-house. Streetcars conveyed the 200 guests to the suburban home, where all that go to make life happy met—sweet flowers everywhere, a stringed orchestra in the rear hall, soft lighted alcoves, lantern strung paths, myriad bulbs of electric brilliancy, sweet girls dispensing delicious beverages and meadames the more substantial edibles while the toilettes hostess and her coterie of friends gave the formal welcome. In this line were Mrs. Rudolph K. Hoeflich, Miss Gordon, Mrs. Judge Davis and Miss Davis of New Richmond, O., Mrs. John Barbour and Mrs. William McDonald of Chicago.

Summer Comfort.

Just think, you can make an extra room of your porch, the coolest, most serviceable room in your home, too? VUDOR PORCH SHADES make this possible; they keep out the hot sun, but admit the cool, refreshing breeze. They give absolute privacy, for no one can look through them from the outside; yet they are so constructed that from the inside you can see all that goes on without. They can be instantly raised or lowered with very little effort. A practically indestructible device, operating on the principle of a theater curtain, accomplishes this. They are light but exceedingly durable, being constructed of thin strips of Linden wood fiber woven with the strongest seine twine. Vudor Shades are artistic in the extreme; stained in soft colors that rest the eye and harmonize with any style of architecture. The colors are absolutely indelible and will neither fade nor crack off.

Perfect Womanhood

The greatest menace to woman's permanent happiness in life is the suffering that comes from some derangement of the feminine organs. Many thousands of women have realized this too late to save their health, barely in time to save their lives.

To be a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headache, bearing-down sensations, nervousness, irregularities or "blues," she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as the great woman's remedy for woman's ills, made only of roots and herbs. It cures Female Complaints, such as Dragging Sensations, Weak Back, Falling and Displacements, Inflammation and Ulceration, and all Organic Diseases, and is invaluable in the Change of Life. It dissolves and Expels Tumors at an early stage. Subdues Faintness, Nervous Prostration, Exhaustion, and strengthens and tones the Stomach. Cures Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole female system. It is an excellent remedy for derangements of the Kidneys in either sex.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Since January 1st nearly $1,000 worth of sheep have been killed by dogs in Bourbon county, according to claims filed with the Bourbon Fiscal Court.

The name of the State College is to be changed to the University of Kentucky. D. F. Frazee and D. C. Frazee, two Mason county men are foremost in the management of the College.

BRILLIANT SUCCESS

Fifth Annual Commencement of Miss Gordon's Training School a Notable Affair

Delightful Program at Washington Theater Last Evening

Another successful year of Miss Gordon's Training School came to a close with the Commencement exercises last evening, held at Washington Opera-house.

Miss Gordon opened her private school in Maysville in the fall of 1902, and each year she has met with merited success, her splendid ability as a teacher being widely known.

Her Commencements are of special interest, and a magnificent audience was at the Opera-house last evening to greet the class of 1907 and to pay just compliment to the teacher and to those who were to take part on the program.

Miss Gordon has a way of varying her closing exercises, omitting in many instances the usual essay and substituting in place some delightful recitation or literary offering, thus giving the program a charm that would otherwise be lacking.

Along with book knowledge her pupils are taught to acquire themselves most creditably for any style of work when their graduation time comes.

The class of 1907 was composed of five young ladies and one young gentleman—Misses Florence Adair Tuggle, Ethel May Bryant, Lucy Ranson Baldwin, Helen Cone Newell and Mattie Miller Dooley, and Mr. Robert Nelson Hoeflich, the latter most decidedly, in this instance, "The Only Pebble on the Beach."

The program was as follows:

Invocation.....Rev. W. W. Akers
Music.....Orchestra
Oration—"The Only Pebble on the Beach," Robert Nelson Hoeflich.
Recitation—"Grandfather's Rose," Florence Adair Tuggle.

Music—La Dove Prende (Magic Flute). Mozart

Miss Wadsworth.
Essay—"The world is so full of a number of things,"

I'm sure we should all be as happy as Kings."

Ethel May Bryant.
Recitation—"The Coming Out of Miss Cummings".....Russell

Lucy Ranson Baldwin.
Music—"Jewel Song (Faust)".....Gould

Miss Wadsworth.
Recitation—"The White Cowl,".....

James Lane Allen.
Helen Cone Newell.

Essay—"Souvenirs,".....Mattie Miller Dooley

Music—"An April Morn'".....Batten

Miss Wadsworth.
Presentation of Diplomas, Scholarships

and Medal.....Dr. John Barbour

Accompanist.....Miss Barbour

The selection of each member of the class was marked with individuality, and especially adapted to the style of the pupil, and this part of the program was very much enjoyed.

Miss Gordon was fortunate in securing Miss Florence Pearce Wadsworth for her Commencement, and the selections of Miss Wadsworth brought forth the unbounded enthusiasm of the large audience. She was never heard to better advantage, and responded gracefully to the encores of her hearers.

Before the presentation of the diplomas Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, Chairman of the Advisory Board of the School, spoke briefly as to the work which had been done in years past, and paid just compliment where it was due.

Dr. Barbour was chosen to deliver to the graduates their diplomas, taking opportunity to speak a few words of encouragement and admonition. In addition to the diplomas Miss Bryant won a scholarship to State College, Lexington, and Miss Newell one to Georgetown College, each of the pupils doing excellent class work during the past year. Miss Mary Crawford was awarded the medal for the highest general average in her work, the prize being offered by Judge Thomas R. Gordon of Louisville, the brother of Miss Gordon.

The graduates were laden with flowers and presents as tokens of good will on the part of their friends.

Another successful year of Miss Gordon's School has passed into history, with many bright hours to live in the memories of Teacher and pupils.

The utility and the efficiency of Maysville's institutions of learning were never more effectively illustrated and emphasized than at the exercises last evening.

Proud indeed must have been Miss Gordon as she witnessed the living results and the fruits of her months of patient labor and able direction industriously given to each pupil arrayed before her upon the stage. The large audience attested its approval of the essays and the entire program by liberal and hearty applause, all of which was directed to the able instructress as the master mind behind the scholars and graduates.

There were so many varied and pleasing features on the program that there was never a dull moment during the two hours which it consumed.

Miss Wadsworth never looked nor sang better, and her three numbers and several encores rendered so beautifully, mastered the approval and deep attention of the big audience which was proud to claim her as the sweetest singer in Kentucky and whom she honored for her exquisite talent. Miss Elizabeth Barbour, who presided at the piano, is gaining renown at every appearance by her delicate touch and masterly playing, and as an accomplished pianist, she now ranks at the head, and her exquisite talent is fully recognized by all who hear her.

As a token of their regard and esteem, the graduating class presented Miss Gordon with a beautiful pearl crescent pin.

A gang of hoboes dropped off a C. and O. freight train last evening and invaded the city for about 12 hours. They were driven out of town this morning by Policeman Senteney.

LOST BOY

Charles Ellis of Short Street Missing From Home

Charles Ellis aged 13 years, living on Short street, started on an errand yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, and nothing has been heard of him since.

Ellis is one of the family who was poisoned two months ago from eating wild greens; several of the family came near dying, and young Charles may still be suffering from his intake of the wild herbs.

The affair has been placed in the hands of Chief of Police Ort.

The Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Railway Company was fined $5,000 by the Circuit Court at Nicholasville Wednesday for maintaining a nuisance at High Bridge. The company runs excursions there on Sunday.
Dancing and other forms of amusement are indulged in, which is looked upon by the citizens of High Bridge as demoralizing on the Sabbath day.

TOBACCO ADULTERATION

Colored Brown Paper Sold For Fine
Cut and "Bull Durham" Contains No Tobacco

The following remarkable statement is clipped from "The Modern Grocer" of May 18th, 1907:
"In a recent issue of a Milwaukee publication styled The Cigar Manufacturer, there appeared the following dispatch under a Washington date line. Copies of the publication in which it appeared have been in big demand and requests for them have come from members of the trade in all sections of the United States, says Tobacco. The dispatch read as follows—
"Washington, D. C.—The President called his Cabinet together this afternoon to consider Trust prosecution by the Government. The Government will begin proceedings at once against the Tobacco Trust. The food department some time ago analyzed several brands of tobacco.

"The kinds known as Lucky Strike and English Curve Cut were found to contain 40% tobacco and 60% fine cut brown paper. Bull Durham contains no tobacco, but is 100% finely chopped brown paper soaked in tobacco stems, juice refuse. Duke's mixture is only 10% tobacco.
The "tobacco habit" is wrongly named. It should be known as "the straw board habit."

HOUSEHOLD CARES

Tax the Women of Maysville the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties
With a constantly aching back.
A woman should not have a bad back,
And she wouldn't if the kidneys were well.
Doan's Kidney Pills make well kidneys
Here is a Maysville woman who endorses this claim:

Mrs. Lizzie Bridges, of 206 West Third street, Maysville, Ky., says:

In March, 1900, I gave a testimonial recommending Doan's Kidney Pills and in it I told how I learned the great value of this remedy.

I had been troubled with a bad back and weak kidneys from girlhood and in my efforts to find a cure tried every medicine I could find but without benefit until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They proved just the remedy I needed.

They went right to the cause of the trouble and as a result brought relief that led me to testify in their favor. I have never been without Doan's Kidney Pills in the house since. Every spring I take a box whether symptoms of kidney trouble are apparent or not, and in this way keep the kidneys in good condition and guard against attacks of my old trouble.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
